IN Pursuance of an Act of the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Fourth, c. 61. sect. 60. by which it is directed that I should, on the petition of the several officers of the court of Chancery and their deputies, make inquiry into the salary and emoluments of such of said officers, who should by petition desire that such inquiry should be made, with a view to ascertain the average annual amount of such salaries and emoluments in said offices respectively, for a period of seven years next preceding the first of January 1823, in such manner and with such view and intent as in said Act specified, and should certify under my hand and seal, the average amount of the yearly income of every such officer for the said period of seven years, and that such certificate should be filed in the office of the Auditor General in Dublin Castle, and should remain there as a record, and should be conclusive to all such matters and purposes of said Act:—And also, in pursuance of an Act passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intitled, "An Act to amend an Act of the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, for the better Administration of Justice in the court of Chancery in Ireland," by which it is directed, that I should ascertain, in like manner, the amount of the gross and net income in the office of each and every of the officers of said court, and their deputies, who were such officers or deputies at the time of the passing of said Act, who should by petition desire the same, for the year commencing on the 1st day of Michaelmas term 1823, including therein all and every the salary and emolument arising from such office for and during the said year; and if the said gross income should be less than the average gross income, in the office of such officer or deputy so certified as aforesaid, then to inquire and ascertain, in like manner, whether such deficiency, or any and what part thereof arose from said recited Act, or from any of the provisions contained therein; and in case it should appear that such deficiency, or any part thereof did so arise, then to certify the amount of such deficiency so arising from said Act, or any of the provisions thereof, and that such certificate should, in like manner, be filed in the said Auditor General's office, and should be conclusive as to the said matter;

I, the Right honourable Thomas Leod Manners, Lord High Chancellor of Ireland, have accordingly, on the petition of Thomas Lockwood, Esquire, Secretary to the Lord Chancellor of Ireland, caused inquiry to be made into the salary and emoluments of said office of Secretary, for the period of one year, required by the said last recited Act, and do certify:—

THAT the gross income and emoluments of said Thomas Lockwood's said office of Secretary, for a period of seven years next preceding the 1st of January 1823, after all exclusion and deductions directed by said first-recited Act, amounted to the sum of £21,358. 3. 10. whereof the one-fourth or yearly average is £3,139. 14. 6:

THAT there is no salary attached to said office: That the gross income of said office, for said period of one year, commencing the 3d day of November 1823, and ending on the 2d day of November 1824, amounts to the sum of £1,861. 1. 8. as appears by the first Schedule to this my Certificate annexed:

THAT the disbursements thereout for said period amount to the sum of £341. 13. 3. the particulars whereof are set forth in the second Schedule herewith annexed:

THAT after deducting the aforesaid gross income for said period of one year, amounting to the sum of £1,861. 1. 8. from the aforesaid annual average gross income of £3,139. 14. 6. the deficiency is £1,358. 13. 4.:

THAT the greater part of such deficiency arose from or was occasioned by said Act, and the provisions thereof;

THAT after excluding out of the average or annual amount all such emoluments and income as are directed by said Act, the gross income the said officer should have received for fees upon the business done in said office in said year would, but for the provisions of said Act, have amounted to the sum of £ 1,063. 18. 0½, from which the aforesaid gross income of £ 1,063. 1. 8. received by the said Thomas Lockwood, being deducted, the amount of the deficiency or arising from said Act, and the provisions thereof, is £ 773. 16. 4½, on the business done in said office in said period, as appears by the third Schedule hereunto annexed:

IN pursuance of an Act of the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Fourth, c. 61, sect. 6a, by which it is directed, that I should on petition of the several officers of the court of Chancery and their deputies, make inquiry into the salary and emoluments of such of said officers, who shall by petition desire that such inquiry should be made, with a view to ascertain the average annual amount of such salaries and emoluments in said offices respectively, for a period of seven years next preceding the 1st of January 1823, in such manner and with such view and intent as in said Act specified, and should certify under my hand and seal, the average amount of the yearly income of every such officer for the said period of seven years, and that such certificate should be filed in the office of the Auditor General in Dublin Castle, and should remain there as a record, and should be conclusive to all such matters and the purposes of said Act;

BY the Lord Lieutenant General, and General Governor of IRELAND.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of an Act of the 6th year of His present Majesty George the Fourth, c. 50, intituled, An Act to amend an Act of the 4th year of His present Majesty's reign, for the better Administration of Justice to the Court of Chancery in Ireland, by which it is enacted, "That at any time within Twelve calendar Months next after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Chancellor of Ireland, or the Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Ireland for the time being, to ascertain, in like manner as in other cases is provided by the said Act, the amount of the Gross and Net Income in the office of each and every of the Officers and Deputies of the said Court, who were such Officers or Deputies at the time of passing of the said Act, and who by petition shall have desired or may desire the same, for the year commencing on the first day of Michaelmas Term One thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, including in such Income all and every Salary and Emolument arising from such office for and during the said year; and if the said Gross Income shall be less than the average Gross Income in the office of any such Officer or Deputy, certified in manner as by the said Act is inquired, then to inquire and ascertain in like manner, whether such deficiency, or any and what part thereof, arose from the said recited Act, or from any of the provisions contained therein, or in any general orders of the Lord Chancellor and the Master of the Rolls: And in case it shall appear that such deficiency, or any part thereof, did so arise, then to certify the amount of such deficiency so arising from the said Act, or any of the provisions thereof, or the said orders, and so after the end of every succeeding year, beginning on the first day of Michaelmas term, to inquire and certify in like manner, so long as any of the said officers or deputies shall live, and remain their said offices respectively; and every such certificate shall be filed in manner required by the said Act, in the Auditor General's office, and shall be conclusive as to the said matter; and it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, to order that a sum equal to the amount of such deficiency, or such proportion thereof, as such Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, shall think proper, shall from time to time be paid out of the Consolidated Fund, in full compensation for such deficiency, in manner and under the provisions and restrictions in the said recited Act."

And whereas Thomas Lockwood, Esquire, Secretary to the Lord Chancellor of Ireland, having petitioned the said Lord Chancellor, and the said Lord Chancellor having accordingly on the petition of the said Thomas Lockwood, caused inquiry to be made into the salary and emoluments of said office of Secretary, for the period of one year, required by the said recited Act, doth certify, That the gross income and emoluments of said Thomas Lockwood's said office of Secretary, for a period of seven years next preceding the 1st January 1825, after all exclusions and deductions directed by said first recited Act, amounted to the sum of Twenty-two thousand three hundred and twenty-eight pounds three shillings and ten-pence, whereof the one-seventh or yearly average is Three thousand one hundred and eighty-nine pounds fourteen shillings:

That there is no salary attached to said office: that the gross income of said office, for said period of one year, commencing the 3d day of November 1823, and ending on the 3d day of November 1824, amounts to the sum of One thousand eight hundred and sixty-one pounds one shilling and eight-pence:

That the disbursements thereout for the said period amounts to the sum of Three hundred and forty-one pounds thirteen shillings and three-pence:

That, after deducting the aforesaid gross income for said period of one year, amounting to the sum of One thousand eight hundred and sixty-one pounds one shilling and eight-pence, from the aforesaid annual average gross income of Three thousand one hundred and eighty-nine pounds fourteen shillings, the deficiency is One thousand three hundred and twenty-eight pounds twelve shillings and four-pence:

That the greater part of such deficiency arose, or was occasioned, by the said Act, and the provisions thereof:

That after excluding out of the average or annual amount, all such emoluments and income as are directed by said Act, the gross income the said officer should have received for fees, upon the business done in said office in said year, would, but for the provisions of said Act, have amounted to the sum of Two thousand six hundred and fifty-nine pounds eighteen shillings and a halfpenny, from which the aforesaid gross income of One thousand eight hundred and sixty-one pounds one shilling and eight-pence, received by the said Thomas Lockwood, being deducted, the amount of the deficiency so arising from said Act, and the provisions thereof, is Seven hundred and ninety-eight pounds sixteen shillings and four-pence halfpenny, on the business done in said office in said period:

That

That previous to the passing of said Act of the 4th year of His said Majesty's reign, the said officer was entitled to and did receive a fee of six shillings and eight-pence for each attendance, on the passing of Minor and Laminic Accounts, and on the taxation of costs in Minor and Laminic matters; and that said officer's fees for such attendances, during said period of seven years prior to the 1st of January 1823, amounted to the sum of One thousand eight hundred and ten pounds thirteen shillings and four-pence, over and above the exclusion directed by said Act, whereof one seventh or annual average is Two hundred and fifty-eight pounds thirteen shillings and four-pence; that the said officer has been by said Act restricted from taking any fee whatsoever, save and except such fees as are particularly enumerated and set forth in Table N° 8, annexed to said Act: That so far whatever is allowed by said Table to said officer, on either the passing of Minor or Laminic accounts, or on the taxation of costs in such matters; and that the said sum of Two hundred and fifty-eight pounds thirteen shillings and four-pence, has been a deficiency arising from said Act, and the provisions thereof, within said period of one year, commencing on the said 3d day of November 1823, and which deficiency has been met by taking the average of said officer's receipts on said attendances and taxations, during the aforesaid period of seven years, said duties, and the fees payable for the performance thereof, having been altogether abolished:

That the said sums of Seven hundred and ninety-eight pounds sixteen shillings and four-pence halfpenny, and Two hundred and fifty-eight pounds thirteen shillings and four-pence, making together the sum of One thousand and fifty-seven pounds nine shillings and eight-pence halfpenny, is the deficiency arising from said Act, and the provisions thereof, after all the exclusions and deductions directed by said Act:

These are therefore to authorize and require you, to cause to be issued out of the Receipt of the Exchequer of Ireland, to Thomas Lockwood, Esquire, Secretary to the Lord Chancellor of Ireland, the sum of One thousand and fifty-seven pounds nine shillings and eight-pence halfpenny, being in full compensation for the deficiency arising from the said Act, and the provisions thereof, for one year, from the 3d day of November 1823 to the 3d day of November 1824, which sum you are to charge to account of payments made in pursuance of said Act; and for so doing this shall be your warrant. Given at His Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the 15th day of June 1825.

W. Gregory.

COPIES of the CERTIFICATES filed by the Right honourable The Lord Chancellor of Ireland, in the Office of the Auditor General in Ireland, in the case of the claim of William Edward Porter, Esq. Clerk of Recognizances of the Court of Chancery in Ireland, for Compensation under the Act 4 Geo. IV. c. 61. § 60.; together with a Copy of the Lord Lieutenant's Warrant thereon;—in pursuance of the Act 6 Geo. IV. c. 30.

Recognizance Office.—Copy CERTIFICATE of the Right honourable the Lord Chancellor of Ireland, of Seven Years Income of William Edward Porter, Clerk of Recognizances of the Court of Chancery in Ireland.

IN pursuance of the Act of the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Fourth, chapter 61, section 60, by which it is directed, that I should, on the petition of several officers of the court of Chancery and their deputies, make inquiry into the salary and emoluments of such of said officers, who shall by petition desire that such inquiry should be made, with a view to ascertain the average annual amount of such salaries and emoluments in said office respectively, for a period of seven years next preceding the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, in such manner, and with such views and intent as in said Act specified; and should certify under my hand and seal, the average amount of the yearly income of every such officer for the said period of seven years; and that such certificate should be filed in the office of the Auditor General in Dublin Castle, and should remain there as a record, and be conclusive to all such matters, and to the purposes of said Act;

I, the Right Honourable Thomas Lord Manners, Lord High Chancellor of Ireland, having accordingly, on the petition of William Edward Porter, gentleman, clerk of the recognizances of the high court of Chancery of Ireland, caused inquiry to be made into the salary and emoluments of said office of clerk of recognizances for said period of seven years, required by said Act, and do certify:—

THAT on the 7th day of November 1811, the said William Edward Porter was appointed Clerk of the Recognizances of the said court of Chancery by the Right honourable Thomas Lord Manners, Lord High Chancellor of Ireland, and that he still continues to hold said office:

THAT the total amount of the fees claimed or received by the said William Edward Porter, as constituting the gross income and emoluments of the said office, for the business transacted therein for a period of seven years next preceding the 1st day of January 1823, amounts to the sum of £4,800. 6 s., the particulars of which are set forth in the Schedule, N° 1, to this my certificate annexed.

THAT the sum of £. 187. 9. 10½. should be deducted from said sum of £ 4,800. 6. 6½. specified in said first Schedule as having arisen from fees claimed by said Clerk of Recognizances, and which should not form any part of the income of said office, for which he should receive compensation according to the provisions of said Act, inasmuch as sufficient evidence was not produced by him to ascertain that such fees were usually paid for similar business, for a period of twenty years prior to the passing of said Act, the particular items of which said sum of £ 187. 9. 10½. with the dates for the performance of which they were received, are specified and set forth in the said Schedule, N° 1, hereto annexed:

THAT there should be also deducted from said sum of £ 4,800. 6. 6½. the further sum of £ 887. 9. 4½. which has been applied by the said Clerk of the Recognizances in paying the salary of a clerk, clerks, searching, stationery, scrivener, house-keeper, coach, and other necessary expenses, the particulars whereof are set forth and specified in Schedule, N° 2, hereto annexed:

THAT after excluding out of the said sum of £ 4,800. 6. 6½. being the gross income and emoluments of said office as claimed, the said sum of £ 187. 9. 10½. being the proportion of said income and emoluments, as appears to have arisen from such new fees, or from increase of fees as may have been introduced within twenty years prior to the passing of said Act, or contrary to the provisions of any Act of Parliament, or otherwise contrary to law, the gross income of said office for said period of seven years next preceding the 1st day of January 1823, amounted to the sum of £ 4,612. 15. 5. whereof the one-sixteenth, or yearly average, is £ 661. 16. 3½:

THAT after deducting the necessary disbursements of said office, amounting to £ 287. 9. 4½. from the said gross income, amounting to £ 4,612. 15. 5. that the net income and emoluments of William Edward Porter, gentleman, as Clerk of the Recognizances of the High Court of Chancery of of Ireland, for said period of seven years, amounted to the sum of £. 2,745. 6. 0½. and that the annual net income and emoluments of said office, within said period, amounts to the sum of £. 525. 0. 10. the particulars of which are set forth in the Third Schedule to this my certificate annexed.

Recognizance Office.—In the matter of William Edward Porter, Clerk of the Recognizances of the Court of Chancery. Lord Chancellor's Certificate of the Emoluments and Disbursements of said Office, for one year, commencing 3d November 1823, and ending 2d November 1824.

IN pursuance of an Act of the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Fourth, chapter sixty-one, by which it is directed that I should, on the petition of the several officers of the court of Chancery and their deputies, make inquiry into the salary and emoluments of such of said officers who should, by petition, desire that such inquiry should be made, with a view to ascertain the average annual amount of such salaries and emoluments in said offices respectively, for a period of seven years next preceeding the first of January one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, in such manner and with such view and intent as in said Act specified; and should certify under my hand and seal, the average amount of the yearly income of every such officer for the said period of seven years, and that such certificate should be filed in the office of the Auditor General in Dublin Castle, and should remain there as a record, and should be conclusive as to all such matters and the purposes of said Act: And also, in pursuance of an Act passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intitled, "An Act to amend an Act of the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, for the better Administration of Justice in the Court of Chancery in Ireland," by which it is directed, that I should ascertain, in like manner, the amount of the gross and net income in the office of each and every of the officers of said court and their deputies, who were such officers or deputies at the time of the passing of said Act, who shall by petition desire the same, for the year commencing on the last day of Michaelmas Term one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, including therein all and every salary and emolument arising from said office for and during the said year; and if the said gross income should be less than the average gross income in the office of such officer or deputy so certified as aforesaid, then to inquire and ascertain in like manner, whether such deficiency, or any and what part thereof, arose from said recited Act, or from any of the provisions contained therein; and in case it should appear that such deficiency, or any part thereof, did so arise, then to certify the amount of such deficiency so arising from said Act, or any of the provisions thereof, and that such certificate should, in like manner, be filed in the said Auditor General's office, and should be conclusive as to the said matter;

I, the Right honourable Thomas Lord Manners, Lord High Chancellor of Ireland, have accordingly, on the petition of William Edward Porter, gentleman, Clerk of the Recognizances of the said said court of Chancery in Ireland, caused inquiry to be made into the salary and emoluments of said office of Clerk of the Recognizances for the period of one year, required by said last recited Act, and do certify:—

THAT the gross income and emoluments of said William Edward Porter, said office of Clerk of the Recognizances, for a period of seven years next preceeding the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, after all exclusions and deductions directed by said first recited Act, amounted to the sum of £4,832. 15. 5, whereof the one-seventh or yearly average is £691. 16. 5½.

THAT there is no salary attached to said office; and that the gross receipt of said office in said year, commencing the 3d of November 1823, and ending the 2d of November 1824, amounts to the sum of £505. 6. 2. as appears by the First Schedule to this my certificate annexed:

THAT the disbursements out of said gross income amount to the sum of £127. 10. 9. as appears by the Second Schedule hereto annexed:

THAT after deducting said last-mentioned sum of £127. 10. 9. from said sum of £505. 6. 2. the net income in said office in said year amounts to the sum of £377. 15. 5½.

THAT after deducting the aforesaid gross income of said office for one year, commencing on the 3d November 1823, and ending the 2d November 1824, amounting to £505. 6. 2. from the aforesaid average gross annual income for said period of seven years, amounting to the sum of £691. 16. 5½, the deficiency amounts to the sum of £186. 10. 3½.

THAT the whole of such deficiency arose from, or was occasioned by the said Act, and the provisions thereof:

THAT after excluding out of the said average or annual amount all such emoluments and income as are directed by said Act, the gross income the said officer should have received for fees upon the business done in said office for said year, would, but for the provisions of said Act, have amounted to the sum of £758. 3. 4.

THAT the aforesaid gross income £505. 6. 2. being deducted from the aforesaid average gross annual income for said period of seven years, amounting to the sum of £691. 16. 5½, that the amount of the deficiency so arising from the said Act, and the provisions thereof, is £186. 10. 3½, on the business done in said year, after all the exclusions and deductions directed by said Act.

And whereas William Edward Peter, gentleman, Clerk of the Recognizances of the high court of Chancery in Ireland, having petitioned the Lord Chancellor, and the Right honourable Thomas Lord Manners, Lord High Chancellor of Ireland, having accordingly caused inquiry to be made into the salary and emoluments of said office of Clerk of the Recognizances for the period of one year, doth certify, That the gross income and emoluments of said William Edward Peter's said office of clerk of the recognizances, for a period of seven years next preceding the 1st day of January 1823, after all exclusions and deductions directed by the said first recited Act, amounted to the sum of Four thousand six hundred and thirty-two pounds fifteen shillings and five-pence, whereas the one-seventh or yearly average is Six hundred and sixty-one pounds sixteen shillings and five-pence three farthings:

That there is no salary attached to said office, and that the gross receipt of said office, in said year, commencing the 3d day of November 1823, and ending the 2d day of November 1824, amounts to the sum of Five hundred and five pounds six shillings and two-pence:

That the disbursements out of said gross income, amount to the sum of One hundred and twenty-seven pounds ten shillings and nine-pence:

That after deducting said last mentioned sum of One hundred and twenty-seven pounds ten shillings and nine-pence, from the said sum of Five hundred and five pounds six shillings and two-pence, the net income in said office, in said year, amounts to the sum of Three hundred and seventy-seven pounds fifteen shillings and five-pence.

That after deducting the aforesaid gross income of said office, for one year, commencing on the 3d November 1823, and ending the 2d November 1824, amounting to Five hundred and five pounds six shillings and two-pence, from the aforesaid average gross annual income for said period of seven years, amounting to the sum of Six hundred and sixty-one pounds sixteen shillings and five-pence three farthings, the deficiency amounts to the sum of One hundred and fifty-six pounds ten shillings and three-pence three farthings.

That the whole of such deficiency arose from, or was occasioned by the said Act, and the provisions thereof:

That after excluding out of the said average or annual amount, all such emoluments and income as are directed by said Act, the gross income the said officer should have received for fees upon the business done in said office, for said year, would but for the provisions of
